There is rapture on the lonely shore,
There is society, where none intrudes,
By the deep sea, and music in its roar:
I love not man the less, but nature more.
Lord Byron

1972 DEDICATION

written by Randall Davey

The man with a seventeenth century mind.
A twentieth century body,
A utopian bound soul,
sees man as a brittle crazie glass,
both friend and foe—
God and beast,
Has a paradoxical office—
Which must be cruel only to be kind,
Which is his life and may be his death.

What a piece of work is a man!
How noble in reason! How infinite in faculties!
In form and moving how express and admirable!
Such a man is this, but more,
Wed in body, soul and mind.
To three separate natures of different kinds,
Too little to call Man a little World;
Except God, Man is a diminutive to nothing.
Man consists of more pieces, more parts, than the world.

Today, we honor not all men but one.
May your hour be rich, rendering, and long.
Live, love and breathe the needs around you—
And imprint on our metal,
The love of knowledge,
And the need for God.
From our minds to your mind, we communicate thought,
From our heart to your heart, we express emotion,
And we dedicate this 1972 Nautilus to our Academic Dean, Donald L. Young.

The 1972 season was Bob Jack's last season as coach of the Crusaders. When he came to E.N.C. in the fall of 1969, the Crusaders had never had a winning season. Since then his teams have had three winning seasons in a row—1969 with seven wins and six losses, 1970 with eight wins and three losses, and this season with nine wins and four losses. An inspiring man for which to play, Coach Jack brought with him a great knowledge of the game, and used that to turn E.N.C. into a well respected soccer team

Before the 1971 basketball season opened, Coach Jim Smith looked at his squad, which was minus All-New England guard Ron Bradley and high scoring forward Clark Adams, and said, "I'll be satisfied if we're .500."

The Crusaders, however, finished the regular season with a 20-5 record, defeating Husson College of Bangor, Me., 101-94 in the last game to win a berth to the NAIA District 32 Playoffs.

In the District 32 Playoffs, ENC fought back from an 18-point defecit to nip host Boston State, 90-84 in the Southern Division final. The Crusaders then played in two more tournaments, winning the King's College Invitational with victories over Philadelphia Bible, Gordon, and King's and then lost in the second round of the National Christian College Tournament in Chattanooga, Tenn., to host Tennessee Temple, 71-65, after beating Bethel College of Minnesota.

Don Eads, who was the third highest scorer in the nation, according to NAIA statistics, led the Crusaders in scoring with an average of 32.46 points per game. Eads was named to the All-Tournament teams at Kings, at Chattanooga, and he was on the second District 32 team. The only other Crusader who averaged in double figures was Dave Eads, Don's younger brother, who averaged 15.21 points per game. The team, however, could never have gone as far as it did without the rebounding and defense of 6'7" Rick Reyenger (14.37 rebounds per game) and Don Constantine and the defense and ballhandling of Steve Shoff.

The 1971-72 basketball season proved to be a successful one for the Eastern Nazarene Crusader girls' basketball team.

Under the coaching of Mrs. Nancy Detwiler, the girls compiled an impressive record of nine wins with one loss during the season, and after a disasterous tournament, finished with an over-all 10-4 record.

The Brooks's, Janice and Janet, led the team in scoring with 259 points and 214 points respectively for the season. Other significant scorers were Cindy Hill with 122 points and Barb Warr with 62 points.

With only one senior leaving, hope is high for an even better season next year.

The E.N.C. Tennis Team, led by captain Dan McCabe, completed its most successful season since the iniation of the sport into E.N.C.'s athletic curriculum several years ago. Our first win came midway through the season at Barrington College. We went on to win two other matches before the close of the regular season while placing third in the post-season Mount Vernon, Invitational Tournament in Ohio. The team is made up mainly of underclassmen and we are optomistic about the coming season.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

EASTERN NAZARENE COLLEGE is People! . . . Presidents like Edward Mann, Samuel Young, Gideon Williamson, Floyd Nease, R. Wayne Gardner, and Fred J. Shields . . . Deans like Bertha Munro, Alvin Kauffman, Harvey Blaney, and Donald Young . . . Teachers like J.H. Schrader, Edith Cove, and Alice Spangenberg . . . Pastors like Ernest Angell, J. Glenn Gould, Ted Martin, and Timothy Smith . . . Alumni like E.S. Phillips, Earl Lee, Dick Schubert, Wes Angell, and Ernest Grosse . . . District Superintendents like Kenneth Pearsall, Jonathon Gassett, James Hunton, Roy Carnahan, Gene Fuller, Jack White, Robert Goslaw, and Jack Shankel . . . Students reading, writing, growing, learning, testing, making lifelong commitments, graduating, and maturing into useful adults . . . Lay trustees like Robert Wilfong, Neel Price, John Golden, Elery Harris . . .

Eastern Nazarene College is an accredited liberal arts college in Quincy on the South Shore of Boston's harbor, holding up the light of Christian faith and disciplined learning since 1900.

But, more than a place with buildings, Eastern Nazarene College is always people! It is 970 students learning from 43 full-time faculty members. It is a college supported by 487 churches with 37,000 members of the Church of the Nazarene who are the living endowment of the Eastern Educational Zone. With alumni by the thousands and friends by the tens of thousands, ENC will always be people-centered, training young people to be responsible laymen and effective ministers of the gospel of Jesus Christ with their place of service primarily the Church of the Nazarene.

Praying for God's best for this year's students from a church that cares and offers a place of service.

Prayer of an unknown Confederate soldier

*I asked God for strength, that I might achieve,
I was made weak, that I might learn
humbly to obey . . .
I asked for health, that I might do greater things . . .
I was given infirmity, that I might do better things . . .
I asked for riches, that I might be happy,
I was given poverty, that I might be wise . . .
I asked for power, that I might have the
praise of men,
I was given weakness, that I might feel
the need of God . . .
I asked for all things, that I might enjoy life,
I was given life, that I might enjoy all things . . .
I got nothing that I asked for—but everything I had hoped for,
Almost despite myself, my unspoken
prayers were answered.
I am among all men, most richly blessed.*
